Stratton Mountain Resort is conveniently located in south/central Vermont with its own quaint Alpine village. Stratton has 90 trails, slopes and glades covering over 580 acres of terrain, and has a vertical drop of 2,003 feet. There are 16 lifts including one 12 passenger Gondola, four high-speed six passenger chairs, four quad chairs, one triple, one double, two surface lifts and three Magic Carpets. The average snowfall is approximately 180 inches. Snowmaking covers 90% of the terrain. Snow shoeing and cross-country skiing are available at the mountain.

The Liftline Lodge is one of Stratton resort's original lodging properties, reflecting the Austrian influence of the early 1960's when it was built. Within easy walking distance of the shops and restaurants of the village and ski lift area, the Liftline offers basic, no-frills, motel style rooms for guests seeking economical lodging, while enjoying the convenience of an on-mountain location. The Liftline rooms include private bathrooms, telephone with voice mail, color cable TV, two public lounges with fireplaces, coin operated washer/dryer, two indoor hot tubs, Outdoor Russian spa, and discounted access to sport center. For those of you that remember, last years Stratton trip was ONE BIG PARTY. Why change a good thing.

The trip price includes:

- ❖ Round trip motorcoach transportation from Cherry Hill to Stratton.
- ❖ Two night's accommodations at the Liftline Lodge.
- ❖ Two-day lift ticket.
- ❖ Beer, wine and soda on the bus.
