

FALL LINE SKI CLUB POWDER EXPRESS

John Steel 1931-2024 Crazy Old Man

By Janice Lynch

I was asked to write a few words about the recent passing of John “Crazy Old Man” Steel. We don’t normally print items on members that have passed away, since one does not know where to draw the line, but John wasn’t a normal person.

My story with John was the same as many Fall Liners. I met him on a D&Q bus trip to one of the Poconos Mountains, actually I went on 3 trips that year. Each trip was the same, with him announcing when the bus would leave and when you would find him at the bar. It also had him telling me that I had to join Fall Line Ski Club. I was going through a divorce at the time and I didn’t plan on joining anything. On the third trip, on the way home someone had brought homemade wine, someone brought cheese and crackers and someone else brought home made marinated peppers. John again asked me to join and when I didn’t say yes, he sat on me. He kept asking and jumping up and down until I said I would go to a meeting although I didn’t have much breath to say it with.

The thing about John was his zest for life. I don’t know if it was him or someone else that gave him the nickname of Crazy Old Man, but it was appropriate.

John was willing to do anything. He taught many people how to Rollerblade (which he could do faster backward than most of us could blade forward). He would camp, hike, kayak, dirt bike, ski, and who knows what else? I am told he even had a black belt in Judo. For Gosh Sakes he jumped out of an airplane with 19 others for his 70th birthday. Who does that?

More importantly he looked out for everyone. When skiing, he liked to be the trailer who picked people up when they fell. When rollerblading in the Fall, he would often show up and put the tailgate down in the back of the truck to reveal hot soup for everyone. For the Atco to Margate bike ride he would be the trailer car. For the camping crew he was known for his campfires (among other things).

Looking at the comments on Facebook there were many repeated phrases of him being a kind gentleman, he had a forever smile, he had a passion for life and we were lucky to have known him and a good friend.

Thank you to his family, Jane, David and Jack for letting him be away from you all those times so he could be with us. He did speak lovingly of all of you. His final years in Assisted Living must have been torture for all of you who was so used to him living his 92 years of life to the fullest.

May we all raise a toast to the Crazy Old Man who made the world a better place with him being in it. May we all have his zest for life.

NONA'S NOTES (AND MUSINGS)

Ski season is in full swing! By the time you are reading this several trips will have taken place with several still to come including Jackson Hole, and Tignes, France. Hopefully, the weather also allowed for some local day trips for those who cannot join us on the weeklong trips. I hope everyone has been having a great time!

Despite the fact that we are in the midst of the current ski season, the winter trip committee has started planning for next season, choosing the resorts and putting together the packages. Stay tuned for the announcement of some exciting trips for 2025! Also, consider joining the winter trip committee and working towards putting together the packages or better yet volunteering to be a trip leader. If you are interested in serving the club in that capacity (and guaranteeing your own spot on the trip) contact Mike Houlihan. Mike can explain what is involved in being a trip leader and provide you with a copy of the trip leader manual (yes there is a manual).

Don't forget, however, to check out the social activities. Join us for a Friday (or Thursday on occasion) happy hour. A bowling night has also been scheduled (thanks Susan). If you have an idea for an activity or just want to hang out with your Fall Line friends, let us know, we can post it on the web site and add it to the blast.

Finally, as we approach election season for the club, please consider submitting your nomination for an open position. I can tell you that it has been extremely rewarding participating on the board these past several years but new voices with new ideas are always needed. By being a board member you have a direct say in the decisions that are made for what is your club. Come and join our group.

The book for the month of Feb. 2024 will be: In The Garden of Beasts by Erik Larson

Erik Larson, New York Times bestselling author of Devil in the White City, delivers a remarkable story set during Hitler's rise to power. The time is 1933, the place, Berlin, when William E. Dodd becomes America's first ambassador to Hitler's Nazi Germany in a year that proved to be a turning point in history.

A mild-mannered professor from Chicago, Dodd brings along his wife, son, and flamboyant daughter, Martha. At first Martha is entranced by the parties and pomp, and the handsome young men of the Third Reich with their infectious enthusiasm for restoring Germany to a position of world prominence. Enamored of the "New Germany," she has one affair after another, including with the surprisingly honorable first chief of the Gestapo, Rudolf Diels. But as evidence of Jewish persecution mounts, confirmed by chilling first-person testimony, her father telegraphs his concerns to a largely indifferent State Department back home. Dodd watches with alarm as Jews are attacked, the press is censored, and drafts of frightening new laws begin to circulate. As that first year unfolds and the shadows deepen, the Dodds experience days full of excitement, intrigue, romance—and ultimately, horror, when a climactic spasm of violence and murder reveals Hitler's true character and ruthless ambition.

Suffused with the tense atmosphere of the period, and with unforgettable portraits of the bizarre Göring and the expectedly charming--yet wholly sinister--Goebbels, In the Garden of Beasts lends a stunning, eye-witness perspective on events as they unfold in real time, revealing an era of surprising nuance and complexity. The result is a dazzling, addictively readable work that speaks volumes about why the world did not recognize the grave threat posed by Hitler until Berlin, and Europe, were awash in blood and terror.
